This qualification reflects the role of individuals who apply project management skills and knowledge. They may manage projects in a variety of contexts, across a number of industry sectors. They have project leadership and management roles and are responsible for achieving project objectives.

They possess a sound theoretical knowledge base and use a range of specialised, technical and managerial competencies to initiate, plan, execute and evaluate their own work and/or the work of others.

Entry Requirements

There are no prerequisites for individual units of competence.

International students are required to have IELTS 5.5, hold a Certificate IV in English Proficiency or an equivalent score on the LLN placement test at this college. It is necessary students have a reasonable command of the English language to be able to cope with overall concepts in most situations. There are no limitations to entry based on age, gender, physical ability, social or educational background.

EIP does not accept applications from students under 18 years of age.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of Prior Learning is the process of formal recognition for skills and knowledge gained through previous learning such as:

- Life experiences,
- previous formal learning,
- or employment in a supervisory role or higher.

You may be eligible for recognition of prior learning for part or all of your intended study, based on your previous experiences and learning. For more information regarding RPL and how to apply, please discuss this with the Administration team prior to enrolment.

Credit Transfer

You may be eligible for credit transfer if you have previously undertaken training through a Registered Training Organisation. Credit transfer may be granted for one or more units or a full certificate level. Three major factors need to be considered: How current the qualification is, does the matter previously studied map to the current version of the course or unit, and if the training was undertaken with an Australian Registered Training Organisation. If you think you may be eligible for credit transfer you will need to provide the following: A certified copy of the original statement of attainment and/or certificate is to be provided for a credit transfer.
